

Do you have Parkinson's? You're not alone.

Join us for our FREE monthly clinic dedicated to Parkinson's Disease (PD) care and connect with others who have this disease.

Benefits of the clinic:

- Organized and staffed by RRH Physical Therapists
- Educational topics and relevant resources
- Hear from others living with PD and build a supportive community

All clinics are free and open to those living with Parkinson's disease — including patients, caregivers, spouses, and loved ones.

Topics to be covered:

July 17, 2024	Recent Research Updates in PD	Sarah Wolf, PT, DPT
August 21, 2024	Rock Steady Boxing and Parkinson's Dance	Lindsay Perez, MSPT
September 18, 2024	Acquired Dizziness Due to PD	Kelly Schauf, PT
October 16, 2024	Treating Advanced Parkinson's	Mike Wilson, Patient Educator with AbbVie
November 20, 2024	Addressing Emotional Well-Being for those with PD	Krista Damann, PhD and Tanya Grace, PsyD

Everything that matters to you, We're here for it.
