

Rochester Regional Health's Greenhouse Gas Emissions Profile

The graph above shows Rochester Regional Health's current (2022) status of the projected GHG emissions by source. Rochester Regional Health intends to drastically reduce associated greenhouse gas emissions (~45%) by 2025 through sourcing 100% of our electricity through renewable sources. Note that Rochester Regional intends to pursue further greenhouse gas savings beyond the 2025 including a reduction